POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS OF THE SECRETARIAT

PRINCIPAL SECRETARY / SECRETARY

The Secretary is the official head of her Department. Subject to the general or special directions of a Minister-in-charge and to the Business Rules, she is responsible for the disposal of all business pertaining to her department [vide Rules 7 and 30 of the Karnataka Government (Transaction of Business) Rules, 1977].

The Secretary in a department is a Secretary to Government and not a Secretary to the Minister-in-charge of the department. She is responsible for the observance of the Business Rules in the transaction of the business in her department. It is her duty to see that that policy of the Government in the department with which she is concerned is carried out. It is her duty to place before the Minister all relevant facts relating to a case and to tender the necessary advice either in writing or orally before or at the time, the Minister has to pass final orders on a case. In case any course of action decided on by the Minister is contrary to the provisions of any Rule or Law or is at variance with the policy hitherto adopted by Government, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to draw attention of the Minister to this fact. The Secretary exercises general supervision and control over the staff under her and is responsible for seeing that the members of the staff do the work allotted to them efficiently and expeditiously (Rule 76 of the Karnataka Government (Transaction of Business) Rules, 1977).

Joint / Deputy Secretary

The Joint / Deputy Secretary, as his name implies, deputises for the Secretary and will exercise such powers as the Secretary delegates to him from time to time with the approval of the Minister-in-charge. (He occupies a position almost identical with that of the Secretary in regard to certain subjects allotted to him.)

The Joint Secretary is in charge of University Education and is also the O & M officer for both Primary and Higher Education. As O & M officer he has the following duties ;

(i) To maintain liaison with DPAR (AR) in O & M and other administrative improvement activities ;

(ii) To look into the training requirements of the Secretariat department and also of subordinate departments and ensure that adequate measures are being taken in this regard ;

(iii) Implementation of the inspection programmes of Secretariat department and departments under their control ;

(iv) Standardisation of forms, delegation of powers, monthly staff meetings, simplification of procedures, etc.

(v) Enforcement of standing rules, orders, etc., pertaining to officer procedure and other related matters and securing compliance where necessary ; and

(vi) Attend to other administrative improvement activities for increasing the level of efficiency in the Secretariat and field departments.
